ALLEY

- The Nassau Tour is on! If you still don't believe it, you just didn't see the Marlboro parking lot a couple of Sundays ago.
- This should be a selling point on the bus to Danville on April 28. Mac McClintic gave the VW bus a run to Marlboro and the happy people who didn't have to drive home after the late races were evidence enough. Of course, Mac might feel like backing out.
- Speaking of the Indianapolis 500, Allen and Mac are planning to fill two of the seats there. Hope the officials will allow planes to make landings on the track; otherwise, there might be two hitchhikers on the side of the road leading from the airport to the raceway. After Marlboro last week, ask Allen on techniques of hitchhiking.
- Ed Inabinet will replace Kent Johnson on the board of directors.
- John Musgrove and his family are planning soon to return to Richmond for six months. He will be stationed at Fort Lee. We'll be glad to see his membership in the club again.
- Another familiar face popped up at Marlboro. Len Wells is spending some time at home after being stationed "out West" for almost a year.
- Before events, we've been reading that other clubs require seat belts before being allowed to run. Why don't we?
- A foreign car auto parts store at 1209 N. Boulevard has just opened.
- Save your snapshots! There's a photo contest for VMSC coming up. More about this at the April meeting.
- Our sincere thanks to John Ruble for having this issue's picture page produced.

TRIUMPH

The 60 Hours of

Sebring

This little Porsche goes to the track.

(THURSDAY:)

"Want to go 'South-of-the-Border'?"
"Looks like we haven't much choice!"

"Hey, George, wake up and see Florida!"
"Shut-up and keep driving. It's 6 a.m."

"If this is Florida, why do I still have my coat on?"

"There's Scotty and Betty Gow."
"Good. It's just like having a doctor aboard."

"The Cobras are keeping up with the Ferraris pretty well.
The practice is very good."

(FRIDAY MORNING)

"Where's Penske?"
"Shirley, we're looking for Kendall!"

"There's Sarah and Gene Holder."

"There's Kendall. His tan makes me sick"
"Who needs Fort Lauderdale anyway!"

(FRIDAY AFTERNOON)

"How many cars in this race?"
"One, two---eight!"
"Three hours for eight cars?"

(Later)

"How many cars now?"
"One, two---four!"
"Two hours for four cars?"

(Later)

"Can you read that sign?"
" 'Ullman's Bay of Pigs--Races Friday afternoon' ".

"Where's the Ferrari garage?"
"Across the track."
"Think we can get across?"
"Just look important."

"Where's Penske?"

"Let's forget Penske. Look! There's Phil Hill!"
"What's he doing?"
"Giving the pit crew practice before tomorrow."
"Who's with him?"
"Fireball."

MEETING NOTICE
DON'T FORGET THE REGULAR MEETING
THURSDAY, APRIL 18 AT THE BRANCH HOUSE.

PROGRAM FOR THE EVENING INCLUDES A RALLY CLASS TO BE CONDUCTED BY GEORGE PATTESON AND ED COBB AND RACE FILMS AND SLIDES.

"Hmmm."
"There's Gurney, too."
"Hmmm."
"Where's Penske?"

(SATURDAY 5:30 a.m.)

(Alarm) "Hey, Shirley, wake up and see Florida!"

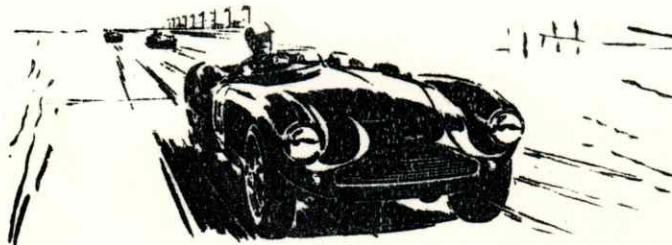

(LATER)

"I can't wait to see the Le Mans start!"
"How much longer? We've been standing on this ladder for two hours."
"Only a minute."
"The flag's down now. So is the fence we're standing behind!"
(Scramble)
"Maybe we'll see the start next year!"
"What a mob! I hope Marlboro isn't this bad."
"My gosh! Is that a Gilbert and Sullivan troupe over there with the bibbed overalls and the red shirts?"
"No. That's just Carroll Shelby and his Cobra team."
"Speaking of the 'longest day'".
